

but with a well equipped ministry, could we not have accomplished much more? Brethren, we must educate, and educate in our own school. The training of young men for the ministry, is a sufficient reason why every member of the Brethren church, should support Ashland University. No other argument is necessary.

Now what can you do for our school? You say, what are your needs? Well, the one thing needed above all others, just now is students. These you can furnish. The Brethren church supplies students sufficient, to make a large school. Why should not Ashland College have them? You do not want your boys and girls to attend other churches, when you have services of your own; then why should they go to other schools when you have one of your own? On an average every congregation in the brotherhood could furnish at least one student. This would give our school a tremendous boom. Your relation to our school is as close as your relation to the local congregation where you hold your membership. Act accordingly.

IF your EVANGELIST comes to you unstitched and uncut it is because the wire gave out.

THE Ashland City church has arranged to convey people from and to the depot at one-half regular rates. Inquire for the "College transfer."

BROTHER Knepper of Berlin, Pa., reports two more accessions by baptism. This too, in the congregation reported by some one, as dying. The person who circulated this report made a slight mistake. He should have said that under the preaching of Brother Knepper, his hearers are dying to sin to live a new and better life. See?

HARVEST MEETING.

The Auburn church, Indiana, will hold its Annual Harvest meeting, Saturday, August 31, two and one-half miles southwest of Auburn, and one mile east, and one mile south of Garret City. Brethren and sisters from abroad are invited.

BESSIE MASON, Sec.

THE issue between doctrine and living, between theology and religion, is often raised out of a misunderstanding of terms. Since there is no life which does not rest on a doctrine, and no truth of religion which does not equally belong to theology.—M. R. Vincent.
